Death of Comrade Langbein.

Editor National Tribune: Ex-Justice

Julius C. J. Langbein, known wherever veterans of the civil war are found as the Little Drummer Boy of New York, died on Thursday, Jan. 27, in Hudson

Street Hospital, New York City. Com-rade Langbein fell in the street at Park

Place and Broadway and was removed to the hospital, where he died soon afterwards. At the outbreak of the civil war Comrade Langbein, then 13 years old, enlisted as drummer boy in the 9th N. Y., better known as Haw-kins's Zouaves. He was the youngest boy who went from the State of New York to the front. He served two years, He was a member of the New York Legislature in 1877 and Judge of the Municipal Court from 1880 to 1886. He Ladies, just see how easy I do a big washing with my 1900 Gravity Washer. I start the tub a whirling. Then the gravity device under the tub begins to help and the rest is just like play. Washes a tubril in six minutes! How's that for quick and easy work? The 1900 Washer Co. sent me this marvelous muchine on trial. They didn't ask for notes or cash in advance. And they let me pay for it a little each week out of the money it saved me! They treat everybody the same way.
